

When Carlos first arrived at the Day Program, he didn't like to participate in class activities and became easily agitated. Today, he loves to trace his letters and numbers, participate in class activities and go on community outings. He especially loves to eat pizza and chicken enchiladas. Carlos loves the Spurs!