

This past year has been such a successful one for Daniel. He has exceeded expectations as he continues to do janitorial work for Homelife. He has learned his job skills quickly and has secured a position for himself as a trustworthy individual amongst both peers and staff. Daniel is always very neat in appearance, polite and willing to go above and beyond to help those in need. Daniel loves music, parties, picnics, Sea World, the Zoo and bowling. He is a talented artist and loves doing arts and crafts for the building. Daniel also loves animals and is a fierce domino champion. He stands out above most as he continues to respect peers, staff and his family whom he loves unconditionally.
