

When Paul joined Unicorn Center almost two years ago, he wasn't sure that was where he wanted to be. Through lots of hard work, Paul remains on site and has become a good buddy to many of the staff and other Unicorn customers. Paul has made a 100% turn around and his family and staff are extremely proud of him. Although Paul does not like loud noises, he enjoys music and shaking hands with Unicorn visitors.