

Robbie has made great strides this year, increasing his ability to communicate, move himself toward a person or object and to eat food by mouth. As a result, Robbie has more self-confidence. He enjoys going to Bass Pro Shop with his Dad on weekend outings. Robbie also enjoys playing with other children at birthday parties.