

Special Education Tips for Returning from Distance Learning

Jennifer Fitzhugh M.Ed
Advocacy Consultant

Concerns

- Understanding Expectations
- Distance Learning
- Compensatory Education (must be discussed)

Understanding Expectations

- Not meant for learning new material
- Not meant to replace classroom teaching
- Not meant for every student (access, ability)

Distance Learning

- Teletherapy
- Zoom with classmates
- Zoom with teacher
- Cannot reasonably provide same as IEP

Compensatory Education

- Collect Data (March IEP)
- Count time missed from school and services missed
- Look at Continuity Plan if possible
- Get new data upon return to school building
- Schedule ARD to discuss services needed due to regression (you will have to request)

Questions

Jennifer Fitzhugh M. Ed
Advocacy Consultant

210-415-6098

jfadvocacy@gmail.com

www.jenniferfitzhughadvocacy.net

